

"SHEPARD IS THE PARTY'S NOMINEE—NOT TAMMANY'S."

Mr. Croker Makes a Distinction by Way of Explanation and Intimates a High-Toned Campaign.

Richard Croker made a really fine distinction last night in illustrating his view of the present campaign and in describing Tammany's part in it.

Mr. Shepard will not be exploited as the "Tammany candidate." He will be labeled on every banner, elevated railroad sign and district headquarters as the "Democratic candidate for Mayor of New York."

Tammany Hall will endorse him next week as the Democratic candidate. The usual methods of electioneering will be resorted to, but the word "Tammany" will not figure conspicuously as it has in campaigns of the past.

High-Toned Campaign. There will be cart-tail orations of the usual fiery kind in the east and west side districts, big mass-meetings in the larger halls, kite-flying and flag-raising and all that sort of thing, but the general tone of the campaign will be of a much more elevated character than is usual of local contests.

Murphy and his deputy, Devery. They do not see any other solution of the problem. Senator Sullivan and other friends of Devery, however, desire that while Mr. Shepard makes his pledge, Tammany would not have rallied to his support if the leaders had not been given reason to believe that no effort will be made to destroy the influence of the organization.

Mr. Croker is extremely reticent in discussing the police phase of the situation other than to confirm the statements of Brooklyn leaders that Mr. Shepard made no pledges whatever. On the whole, there is considerable uneasiness among Tammany men of all grades.

Whalen Again Disappointed. The fact that Corporation Counsel John Whalen will not be nominated for Sheriff of County Bench will cause great surprise, as it is known that Mr. Croker promised him the nomination last month. It is said, however, that Mr. Whalen would rather retain the office of Corporation Counsel, but an additional reason for the absence of his name from the Supreme Court slate is advanced.

Office Holders Uneasy. Almost every man in Tammany Hall who holds a position on any "graft" of any kind is uneasy. There is no doubt about that. They are inclined to think that if Mr. Shepard applies what they are pleased to regard as his "peculiar views" on city government some very fat offices will be abolished and some lucrative contracts taken away.

Oakley will not be overlooked. He is on Mr. Croker's slate for Sheriff. The nominee for County Clerk will be either George H. Fahrbach, the former Sheriff, or George Plunkitt, the leader of the Fifteenth District, is using up a lot of shoe leather and eloquence in plugging along Muh's game, but Carroll and the other leaders in his combination have decided on Fahrbach.

Gardiner Turned Down. The pretense that in the whole town is for District Attorney. About a dozen men want it. Col. Asa H. Gardiner is one of them. Like the man in the song, he wants very badly to get it, but he probably will not get it. The Colonel thinks he is entitled to a vindication because of his summary removal by Gov. Roosevelt. At the Democratic Club last night he was put down as "a dead one," whatever that may mean.

There will be a lot of work done during the next four days to smash this slate into smithereens in favor of candidates other than those mentioned. Almost every district in town has a candidate for Sheriff or County Clerk. Benard, for John F. Ahearn, Assemblyman Julius P. Henry Roche, Assemblyman Julius Harburger, Michael Halpin, J. J. Pringle, the new leader of the Thirty-second District, and Assemblyman Wauchope Lynn are looking longingly at the two offices. They do not care very much which one they land. It is more than probable that Mr. Croker will go back to the Senate and Mr. Yarbrough, the Lynn and Roche will return to the Assembly.

PREDICTED M'KINLEY'S FATE; WARNS ROOSEVELT.

Gustave Meyer, Young Hoboken Astrologist, Foresees Danger to President, Especially on Nov. 3 and 4.

GUSTAVE MEYER.

Gustave Meyer, the youthful astrologer, of No. 101 Washington street, Hoboken, N. J., who warned President McKinley last spring to beware of an attempt to assassinate him either in June or September, now warns President Roosevelt to be careful of himself during the next six weeks.

"President Roosevelt," says Prof. Meyer, "should be very careful of himself during the next six weeks, especially on Nov. 3 and 4. An accident or sickness is indicated for him about that time, and it may be avoided by proper care."

After the call the market was firm. The opening prices were: October, 7.30 to 7.50; November, 7.90 to 7.91; December, 8.00 to 8.01; January, 8.02 to 8.03; February, 8.03 to 8.04; March, 8.04 to 8.05; April, 8.05 to 8.06; May, 8.06 to 8.07; June, 8.07 to 8.08.

Chicago's opening prices were: December wheat, 62 1/4 to 62 3/4; May wheat, 72 1/4 to 72 3/4; May corn, 54 1/8 to 54 3/8; May soy beans, 56 1/2 to 56 3/4.

The conditions signify much more as the result of any union during this month, especially from Oct. 15 to Nov. 15.

The laboring classes will gain much advantage at the expense of the capitalists, coming, as it were, from the successful result of a strike, and harmony will once again reign supreme among labor and labor.

It will be well for all pilots or sea captains to guard their vessels from fire, or disaster, especially during the first part of this month. We shall also hear of trouble to the coast and clergy.

"October will be an extremely dry month for the fair sex, and no months should be consummated during this month as well."
